Conditions and confirmation

I have read and understand the terms and conditions below and confirm that all the information I have provided on this application form is correct:

Signature _____ Date _____

REMINDER: Have you attached all relevant documents and payments to your application? (See Page 1)

Please return your completed forms and payment to:

Chartered Institute of Public Relations, Public Relations Centre, 52 – 53 Russell Square, London, WC1B 4HP.

TERMS & CONDITIONS (Important information – please read carefully):

COURSE FEES: The course Awarding Body fee MUST be paid in full prior to the start of the course or 30 days from date of invoice (whichever is the soonest). The application fee will be returned if the CIPR is unable to accept applications for any reason, or if the course applied for is cancelled. Otherwise no refunds will be given. REFUNDS: In the event of cancellation by the course participant a full refund (minus the £50 application fee) will be given up to 14 days before the start date of a course. From 14 days prior to the start date, to the commencement of the course, a 50% refund (minus the £50 application fee), will be given. No refunds will be given after a course has started. In the event of cancellation of a course by the CIPR, refunds will be given in full. This does not affect your statutory rights. Places are non-transferable. CANCELLATIONS: Occasionally it will be necessary to cancel a course if minimum numbers can't be achieved. If your course is cancelled the CIPR will contact you by email offering a choice of alternative venues or a full refund. DEFERRALS: Occasionally students may encounter pressures through work or personal circumstances that make it difficult to complete the course in one academic year. In such circumstances, providing the student can show valid reason*, the student will be able to either withdraw from the course entirely, and to postpone teaching and assessments not yet taken to the following academic year, or to defer some or all assessments to the following academic year. A deferral fee will apply. MEMBERSHIP: Once activated, membership cannot be deferred or cancelled. No refunds will be given unless the course is cancelled by the CIPR. The membership subscription will be due for renewal at the rate relevant to your grade. Only one term of discounted membership is applicable per course. ABUSIVE BEHAVIOUR: This will not be tolerated either verbally or written. In exceptional circumstances action may be taken against students who continue to use abusive behaviour and this may result in their place on the course being cancelled and no refund given. Guidelines on what constitutes a 'valid reason' for deferral, together with the procedure for deferral, will be issued to students at the start of the course.*

Application for membership of the Chartered Institute of Public Relations for CIPR Advanced Certificate or Diploma Applicants

If you are already a member of the CIPR please quote your membership number

(Existing members do not need to complete the rest of this form)

It is a condition of studying the CIPR Advanced Certificate or Diploma that you apply for membership of the Chartered Institute of Public Relations at the grade relevant to your experience at the start of the course.

The CIPR is here to help PR professionals like you stay ahead of the game throughout your career. For more information on member benefits take a look at http://www.cipr.co.uk/benefits.

The term of membership for new members applying to study the CIPR Advanced Certificate or Diploma will be as follows:

- Course start date between Sept and Dec 2011 – membership term from September 2011 to 31 December 2012
- Course start date between January and March 2012 – membership term is from January 2012 to 31 March 2013

Your membership will be activated in the first month of the term (September 2011 or January 2012) providing the membership fee has been paid.

Confirmation of your membership number will be sent by email and a membership welcome pack (and membership certificate if Associate or Member grade) by post.

Important - It is your responsibility to ensure you have received your membership number within one month of the start of the membership terms as above – you will not be able to submit assignments without it.

Contact membership@cipr.co.uk or the membership team at 020 7631 6900 with any queries, remembering to let them know that you are applying for the Advanced Certificate course.

Fees

A discounted rate of £145 is offered for the above term of membership regardless of the grade you are applying for, providing you are accepted on the course.

Course Cancellations/Deferrals

The membership fee is non-refundable once the membership has been activated. Please refer to the course deferrals policy on Page 4 of this application form.

Upgrading your membership on completion of your course

Students from the Advanced Certificate course will automatically be upgraded to Associate (ACIPR) membership on successful completion of the course. If you are already an Associate member with three years' experience in PR and Communications you will be invited to upgrade to Member (MCIPR).

Students from the Diploma course will automatically be upgraded to Member (MCIPR) status on successful completion of the course.
